

Hi,

My name is Blake Sabol. My heart goes out to Kimela's family. Although this was much unexpected and very sad we need to remember Kimela and what she stood for. Kimela was full of life. I spent a lot of time with Kimela growing up. She taught me how to be the best I can be. She never just let me settle for being ok. She pushed and pushed to make me better. Who I am today I owe a lot of that to Kimela.

She was a true inspiration and a wonderful role model. I always felt very safe with Kimela and I know she had my best interest at heart.

I was 4 years old when I first met Kimela and grew up with her teaching me what was important to her and what she believed in and is still a big part of me today. I am very thankful for all she taught me and I considered her my second "mom".

Kimela will always hold a special place in my heart and will never be forgotten but will truly be missed.
