

Girls Team Coach Wanted – Lubbock, TX

Texas Elite Gymnastics Academy (TEGA) is looking for a full-time coach for its established girls' competitive team. Ideal candidates must emphasize basics, progressions and proper technique, have experience coaching compulsory and optional levels, possess strong dance and choreography skills, and be familiar with the USAG JO program routines, rules and policies. Applicants should have excellent communication skills, a positive and encouraging coaching style, be energetic and committed to excellence, a dependable team player, and passionate about kids and gymnastics.

Texas Elite Gymnastics Academy was established in 1995, and has produced numerous district and state champions, Regional & National qualifiers, and NCAA college competitors. TEGA's 18,000 sq. ft. facility is located in Lubbock, Texas, which has an area population of over 250,000 and is the home of Texas Tech University. With a great mild climate, the "Hub City" is the economic, education, and health care hub for West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

Benefits for this full-time position include salary, paid vacation & holidays, medical & dental insurance, retirement plan, and childcare. Salary commensurate with knowledge and experience.

Interested candidates please send resume' by email or regular mail to the following:

jdowtega@gmail.com or Texas Elite Gymnastics Academy, 7621 82nd Street, Lubbock, TX 79424